YOUTH IS REARRESTED ON CHARGE OF MURDER

Killing of Year and a Half Ago is Solved, District Attorney's Office Thinks.

At the request of the District Attorney's office Detective Daily early today rearrested Vito Ruggieri, twenty-one, of No. 542 West Forty-fifth Street, upon the charge of killing Michael Farley, William Rohr, a driver, of No. 551 West Forty-fifth Street, was held as a material witness.

Ruggieri was taken to the Second Branch Bureau this morning and questioned at length. He denied knowledge of the murder. So did Rohr. Farley was shot and killed on March 15, 1915, in front of No. 552 West Forty-fifth Street.

PERIL IN TRUTH TELLING. If people always told the truth there would be much falling down, but there would be a hospital at each street corner. CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS
